D. BISHOP at a glance...

Desmond Bishop enters his fourth season at Green Bay Packers after a stellar playing career. He will be entering his 5th season a Superbowl Champion as a Defensive Line Backer. PRO CAREER: Sixth-round pick in 2007 has become a core member of the Packers' special teams, posting 49 tackles in 41 career games... Led the team with a career-high 22 tackles on special teams in 2009, and his 49 stops from 2007-09 were the most by a Packer over that span... Saw limited action on the inside as a backup at 'Buck' linebacker last season, but also got time as the fifth linebacker when the team employed its 'Psycho' package... Started to see more extensive action in 2008 as his duties expanded from strictly middle linebacker to include some work at the weak-side spot as well... Got one start at WLB in Week 14 vs. Houston and posted career highs with 12 tackles, including eight solo, and two forced fumbles, along with his first career sack... Led the Packers with three forced fumbles in 2008
